3. How the Fund invests

3.1 Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide investors with attractive long-term capital appreciation by providing exposure to private real estate and related asset classes through the Underlying Fund. The objective is to earn superior risk-adjusted returns on a globally diversified portfolio of private real estate and related asset classes, with exposure to certain liquid securities, by systematically favouring the market segments and opportunities which Partners Group believes offer the most attractive relative value at a given point in time. The target outcome for the investor is that the Fund will provide a widely diversified global portfolio of real estate and related assets with a lower volatility than public markets.

It is intended that through the participation in the Underlying Fund investors will be provided with access to certain private real estate and related assets that are typically only available to institutional investors (e.g. secondary fund interests), thereby offering an opportunity to increase the efficiency of portfolios that currently lack private real estate and related asset exposure.

Prospective investors must be aware that the Fund is a feeder fund that invests in the Underlying Fund. As such, investors are welcome to review the prospectus of the Underlying Fund before investing. Prospective investors can obtain a copy of the prospectus of the Underlying Fund by contacting the Promoter.

3.2 Investment strategy

The principal elements of the investment strategy include (i) asset allocation broadly across private real estate and related asset classes, and liquid strategy investments; (ii) sourcing investment opportunities; (iii) selecting the investments that are believed to offer superior relative value; (iv) seeking to manage the investment level and liquidity; and (v) seeking to manage risk through ongoing monitoring of the portfolio.

- Asset Allocation. Asset allocation is a cornerstone of long-term portfolio performance. The Underlying Fund's portfolio plan will seek to benefit from long-term diversification of investments through exposure to real estate and related assets across different geographic markets, investment types and vintage years, within the target parameters outlined below.

- Access. In many private real estate and related asset segments, it is not enough to identify promising investments – access is also required. The Underlying Fund will seek to provide investors with access to investments that are generally unavailable to the investing public due to resource requirements, regulatory restrictions and high investment minimums.
- Relative Value Analysis. Changing market conditions can dramatically affect the attractiveness of different segments within private real estate and related assets. Based on its ongoing review of developments in the industry, Partners Group will attempt to identify and overweight the segments that it believes offer the most attractive investment opportunities.
- Liquidity Management. While the Fund has been designed in a manner that seeks to provide monthly liquidity to investors, due to the illiquid nature of some of the underlying investments, there are limitations on the amount of liquidity that can be generated within short time-frames. The Underlying Fund's investment manager will therefore use a variety of techniques (including holding a portion of more liquid securities) in seeking to maintain a high investment level whilst providing a degree of liquidity.
- Risk Management. The long-term nature of private real estate and related investments requires a commitment to ongoing risk management. The Underlying Fund's investment manager will work closely with investment partners seeking to create value and monitor the performance of individual investments.

No guarantee or representation is made that the investment program of the Fund will be successful, that the various investments selected will produce positive returns or that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

3.3 Long term target allocation of the Underlying Fund

The long term target allocation of the Underlying Fund is shown by the following chart. The primary focus of the Underlying Fund is to generate returns from private real estate and related investments, which is balanced by adding liquid strategies to further diversify the portfolio and investing in sectors and regions typically less available for private investing, whilst providing a degree of liquidity to the overall portfolio.

Long term target allocation

A Primaries 5-25%	C Directs 10-50%
B Secondaries 10-50%	D Liquid Strategies 0-20%

As shown by the chart, the overall target allocation of 90% to private real estate and related asset classes is diversified across primary, secondary and direct investments. The direct and secondary allocations are expected to increase the portfolio build-up pace, reduce the J-curve of the portfolio and provide fee benefits for investors. The J-curve is the phenomenon whereby private equity funds typically decline in value during the early years of the investment cycle. This effect is due to the initial impact of fees at a time when the assets have not been invested and the opportunity for value creation within the portfolio has not had the opportunity to materialise. The primary and secondary allocations are expected to provide diversification benefits to the portfolio. Note, however, in determining the long term target allocation, other factors also play an important role; these include, amongst others, the typical duration of investments in certain segments, the size of the opportunity set and the availability of different instruments in which to invest.

The actual portfolio of the Underlying Fund will generally differ from the long-term target allocation for three main reasons:

- Current top-down relative value view. In the current investment environment, certain segments might offer a more attractive risk return profile than others.
- Bottom-up investment opportunities. Specific deal flow in certain private real estate segments might lead to attractive investment opportunities from a bottom-up perspective.
- Portfolio history. Past relative value views may result in allocation differences (e.g. the portfolio may have increased the allocation to a certain segment in the past due to a specifically attractive environment in the specific vintage year) that persist given the illiquid characteristics of private real estate and related investments.

Allowing the actual portfolio allocation to vary from the long term target allocation allows for greater flexibility to profit from the top-down relative value approach and from bottom-up investment opportunities; however, deviations from the long term target allocation need to be made within the context of the predefined portfolio diversification. To facilitate this, Partners Group has defined bandwidths around the long term target allocation, as shown by the following table. Note that the bandwidths apply on the segment level and additional investment restrictions are considered in day-to-day portfolio management.

Category	Asset class	Target allocation	Bandwidth
Private Real Estate and related asset classes	Primary	5-25%	80-100%
	Secondary	10-50%
	Direct	10-50%
Liquid Strategies	Listed REITs, debt and cash	0-20%	0-20%

It should be noted that during the initial build-up of the portfolio that significant deviations are expected from the bandwidths and target allocations detailed in this section of the PDS.

3. How the Fund invests (continued)

3.4 Portfolio Construction

The portfolio of the Underlying Fund will be comprised of two broadly defined themes (as illustrated in the chart below).

	Equity	Debt
Asset types	Private real estate and related asset equity Listed private real estate and related assets	Private real estate and related asset debt Corporate bonds
Features	Real asset exposure Inflation protection Operational value creation potential	Yield Low beta/correlation Defensive positioning

Real Assets

The real asset segment of the Underlying Fund leverages off Partners Group's significant experience in private real estate and related asset investing. This particular market segment enables the Underlying Fund to benefit from the defensive characteristics of holding physical assets, in contrast to financial instruments.

Partners Group believes that one of the key characteristics associated with real assets is the natural inflation protection which can be achieved.

Debt

The debt themed investments seek to provide current income and, to a lesser extent, long-term capital appreciation. Partners Group believes that the investments have a variety of benefits to the portfolio as highlighted below.

- Yield – the credit investments are anticipated to generate yield for the Underlying Fund. While the returns in themselves should be attractive from an investment perspective, the cash generated also has significant benefits from an operational cash management perspective.
- Low beta/correlation – the debt investments also provide diversification benefits to the portfolio with the expected returns having a relatively low correlation to equity investments.
- Defensive positioning – while the value of equity investments vary with the changing economic environment, the returns from the debt instruments should remain relatively stable.

Use of special purpose investment vehicle

The Fund's exposure to the Underlying Fund is made via the acquisition of profit participating notes ("the PPNs") issued by PG GREF Limited (the "Company").

The Company uses the proceeds from the issue of the PPNs to make and hold the investments in the Underlying Fund via an AUD unhedged share class in respect of the Unhedged Class, and an AUD hedged share class in respect of the Hedged Class.

The PPNs provide Unitholders the economic exposure to the Underlying Fund, which will flow through the Company via the PPNs to the Fund.

The Company is a bankruptcy remote pass through vehicle which has a single shareholder being GREF Purpose Trust ("Share Trustee") which is a Guernsey purpose trust which holds legal ownership of shares in the Company.

The Investment decisions of the Company will be carried out by the Investment Adviser. The Company and the Share Trustee are not related bodies corporate of the Investment Manager or Investment Adviser.

The Company will act on the instruction of the Investment Adviser.

3.5 Relative value investing via an integrated approach

The Underlying Fund aims to provide investors with broad diversification, using the ability to invest throughout a broad range of opportunities. By systematically overweighting those segments and instruments that are assessed as offering superior value at a given point in time, risk-adjusted returns can be significantly enhanced. This is referred to as the relative value investment strategy.

Partners Group's integrated approach to private markets investing includes direct, secondary, primary and listed investments. Partners Group considers that investing in this manner allows the firm to take advantage of market opportunities for the benefit of its clients. Specifically, the firm is able to leverage its large global network to source, analyse and execute a broad array of private real estate and related investments.

Partners Group uses the tools and insight gained through its integrated approach to guide portfolio construction through relative value analysis. This analysis weighs the projected performance of various investment segments against each other. These segments are typically defined by geography, property type, instrument type (direct, secondary, primary, listed) and relative attractiveness within the capital structure. Partners Group then strategically allocates capital to the market segments that the firm believes will offer superior value relative to other segments at a given point in time within strategic asset allocation ranges. Partners Group considers this integrated, relative value approach to be the foundation for superior long-term investment performance.

In addition, Partners Group recognises the ability to source and access attractive direct and secondary opportunities is essential. The firm's global platform spans 20 offices, with more than 50 nationalities across 5 continents. This presence supports its ability to access top managers by allowing it to maintain close relationships with private investors and managers around the world. Partners Group has developed rigorous manager selection and due diligence processes and, as a result, is very selective in choosing investments. Once an investment is executed, Partners Group focuses on active asset management, maintains regular dialogue with underlying managers and closely follows the development of its real estate and related assets. The success of the investment strategy is subject to a number of factors and subject to a number of key risks and assumptions. These risk factors, assumptions and the risk management measures are summarised in section 4.

The Underlying Fund's investment manager reserves the right to change its investment strategy from time to time. Any changes to the investment strategy will be notified to investors in accordance with the law.

All investments carry risks, more information can be found in section 4 "Managing Risk".

3.6 Valuation within the Fund

For the purpose of calculating the Net Asset Value of the Fund (and of each class), the Administrator shall receive and relies on data from a number of sources and it is not responsible for the accuracy of the financial information and data. The Administrator may also use and rely on industry standard financial models in pricing any of the Fund's securities or other assets.

3.7 Leverage

The Fund does not seek to employ Leverage, however investments may be Leveraged as described in more detail in the Managing Risk section.

3.8 Derivatives

The Investment Manager will not utilise Derivatives for the purpose of implementing the investment strategy for the Fund. The AUD hedged share class of the Underlying Fund, which the Hedged Class has indirect exposure to, will apply a currency hedging strategy for the purpose of mitigating fluctuations in the net asset value due to currency movements.

3.9 Use of borrowing

The Fund may borrow for cash management purposes. The Underlying Fund is also permitted to borrow up to 25% of its assets, such facility being mainly for liquidity management purposes; which includes satisfying redemption requests and assisting with the implementation of the commitment strategy.

3.10 Short Selling

The Fund does not intend to engage in short selling.

3.11 Suggested investment timeframe

The suggested minimum investment timeframe is 5 to 7 years.

3.12 Labour standards and environmental, social and ethical considerations

Partners Group acknowledges the importance of investing in a socially responsible manner and believes that sound business ethics are a factor in generating sustainable returns for its clients. Partners Group has acknowledged the ten key principles of the United Nations Global Compact in its investment processes since 2006. As of 2008, Partners Group is a signatory of the United Nations Principles of Responsible Investment ("UNPRI"), an initiative developed by an international group of institutional investors, reflecting the increasing relevance of environmental, social and corporate governance ("ESG") issues to investment practices. The UNPRI reflect the core values of large investors who typically have longer investment horizons and highly diversified portfolios. The UNPRI are open to all institutional investors, investment managers, and professional services partners.

As a signatory of UNPRI, Partners Group has incorporated socially responsible investing standards into its private markets due diligence processes and strives to be an active owner and investor. The firm's investment committee will not recommend any investment for which it is known that a company or fund manager will act in direct contradiction to the UNPRI and/or breach applicable legislation in the respective jurisdiction(s).

3.13 Fund performance

Fund performance will be available by calling Partners Group on +612 8216 1900. Please note that due to the historical nature of performance information and the volatility of returns, future returns may differ from past returns.

4. Managing risk

All investments carry risk. Different investment strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets acquired under the strategy. Assets with the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. The significant risks below should be considered in light of your risk profile when deciding whether to invest in the Fund. Your risk profile will vary depending on a range of factors, including your age, the investment time frame (how long you wish to invest for), your other investments or assets and your risk tolerance. Neither Equity Trustees, nor the Investment Manager and Promoter guarantee the liquidity of the Fund's investments, repayment of capital or any rate of return or the Fund's investment performance. You may lose money by investing in the Fund and your investment in the Fund may not meet your objectives. Future returns may differ from past returns. In addition neither Equity Trustees, nor the Investment Manager and Promoter offers advice that takes into account your personal financial situation, including advice about whether the Fund is suitable for your circumstances. If you require personal financial advice, you should contact a licensed financial adviser.

The Fund should be considered as a high risk strategy investment. It is not intended as a complete investment program. The Fund is designed only for informed and educated investors who can bear the economic risks of the loss of their investment and who recognise that in certain market environments it is likely that there will be constraints on liquidity. The Fund is designed as a medium to long-term investment and therefore is not suitable for investors who depend on the short-term availability of their funds. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective or that investors will get their money back.

The main risk factors which may affect the returns of the Fund include:

Real estate risks in general

The Underlying Fund's investments will be subject to the risks inherent in the ownership and operation of real estate and real estate related businesses and assets. These risks include, but are not limited to, the burdens of ownership of real estate property, general and local economic conditions, the supply and demand for properties, energy and supply shortages, fluctuations in the average occupancy and room rates for hotel properties, the financial resources of tenants, changes in building, environmental and other laws and/or regulations, changes in real estate property tax rates, changes in interest rates and the availability of mortgage funds which may render the sale or refinancing of properties difficult or impracticable, negative developments in the economy that depress travel activity, environmental liabilities, contingent liabilities on disposition of assets, uninsured or uninsurable casualties, acts of God, terrorist attacks and war and other factors which are beyond the control of the Underlying Fund.

Risks arising from the nature of private market investments

Private market investments are generally illiquid long-term investments that do not display the liquidity or transparency characteristics found in listed securities. In addition, such investments may have a limited operating history, lack an established market, or be subject to restructuring. Due to these uncertainties and other characteristics of private market investments, the value of such investments may fall and/or not be readily realisable.

Investments in private market funds and listed real estate

The Fund will indirectly invest a portion of its assets in underlying funds established in jurisdictions where no or limited supervision is exercised on such funds by regulators. Further, the efficiency of any supervision may be affected by a lack of precision of investment and risk diversification guidelines applicable to, and the flexibility of the investment policies pursued by, such funds. This absence of supervision at the level of the Fund may result in a higher risk for the investors. Participating in these programs also results in an additional layer of fees and expenses for the investors, as the managers of these offerings typically also charge management and performance fees, and these costs will be borne indirectly by investors in the Fund. It is possible that, even at times when the Fund has a negative performance, the Fund will, indirectly, bear performance fees levied within the underlying investments in which it participates.

Risk in relation to the commitment strategy

In light of the impact of the gap between commitments, investments and distributions on cash flows in relation to participating in private market funds with mechanisms that call capital over time, the Underlying Fund's investment manager intends to employ an over-commitment strategy when investing in private market funds. The level of over-commitment will be determined in light of anticipated cash outflows of the portfolio (draw-downs, withdrawals) and anticipated cash inflows (distributions, applications). The Underlying Fund's investment manager will seek to balance the advantages and risks of the commitment strategy by adopting a number of risk control and other measures pursuant to the investment objective and policies. There can be no assurance that any or all of these measures will be sufficient to meet the obligations of the Underlying Fund arising as a result of the commitment strategy nor that the Underlying Fund's investment manager will be able to otherwise successfully implement its commitment strategy.

Liquidity

The management company of the Underlying Fund has broad discretion to cease the redemption of shares in the Underlying Fund. Any restriction will directly limit the ability of the Fund to redeem the shares it holds in the Underlying Fund, where this occurs it is likely that the Responsible Entity will not accept withdrawal requests and accordingly limit the ability of investors to withdraw from the Fund.

Net redemptions in the Underlying Fund will be limited per calendar quarter to 5% of the net asset value of units outstanding at the end of the preceding quarter unless the management company waive such restriction either partially (by determining a higher percentage) or in its entirety. Net redemptions in the Underlying Fund may be further limited per calendar quarter to 2.5% of the net asset value of units outstanding at the end of the preceding quarter, if deemed in the best interest of the Underlying Fund by the directors of the Underlying Fund. Although the simultaneous issue and redemption will have an offsetting effect and the net issue and/or net redemption is restricted, (i) a net issue has the effect of reducing the investment level which changes the risk/return profile of the Underlying Fund, and/or (ii) a net redemption may have the effect that assets of the Underlying Fund have to be liquidated causing a change in the investment level and the risk/return profile.

The Fund also has a similar gating mechanism, which reflects the redemption restrictions in the Underlying Fund.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS MUST BE AWARE OF THE POTENTIAL LIMITATIONS ON THEIR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FROM THE FUND AND THE POTENTIAL COSTS OF WITHDRAWAL. NEITHER THE RESPONSIBLE ENTITY NOR THE INVESTMENT MANAGER PROVIDE ANY GUARANTEE CONCERNING THE LIQUIDITY OF THE FUND OR THE ABILITY OF AN INVESTOR TO WITHDRAW ITS INVESTMENT OR THE LEVEL OF SELL SPREAD THAT WILL APPLY TO A WITHDRAWAL.

Investment Leverage risk

The Underlying Fund may invest in highly Leveraged projects i.e. in real estate projects or companies with a high degree of indebtedness. Investments that are highly Leveraged may be made either directly or indirectly through special purpose vehicles (which may invest in sub investment grade companies). Companies or projects that are highly Leveraged and/or sub investment grade have a higher risk of defaulting on their debt than companies with lower Leverage and/or that are rated investment grade, due to greater exposure to adverse economic factors such as rising interest rates, reduced cash flows, fluctuations in exchange rates, inflation, or downturns in the economy. If any of the investments in which the Underlying Fund participates restructures or default on their debt, the Underlying Fund may not recover its investment.

Sector selection risk

The Underlying Fund's investment manager may make poor investment decisions resulting in sub-standard returns (for example, where the Underlying Fund gains exposure to a sector which significantly underperforms relative to other real estate sectors).

Investment selection risk

The Underlying Fund's investment manager uses an investment selection process to identify investment opportunities which it believes are most likely to outperform over the medium to long term. There is a risk that these investments will not perform in line with expectations however this risk is mitigated to some extent by the knowledge, experience and processes of the investment manager.

Gearing risk

The Fund may borrow for cash management purposes including, but not limited to, financing of withdrawal requests; if the Fund was not able to borrow then additional cash reserves would need to be retained in the Fund to cover potential liquidity requirements from withdrawal requests. Accordingly, the ability to borrow enables the Fund to have increased exposure to the Underlying Fund. However, the additional exposure also increases the impact of any losses that are suffered within the Underlying Fund.

The Underlying Fund also has the ability to establish credit lines to borrow up to 25% of its assets. Borrowing within the Underlying Fund is mainly for liquidity management purposes, including for example, satisfying redemption requests or funding obligations in connection with the Underlying Fund's investments. The Underlying Fund shall not engage in structural Leverage or any other long-term borrowing. It should be noted that the investments of the Underlying Fund may be Leveraged at the level of the relevant investment.

Currency management and hedging risk

The Underlying Fund will acquire assets in different currencies. As currencies change in value relative to one another, the value of investments based on those currencies also change. These fluctuations can have both a positive and negative impact on the valuation of the Underlying Fund.

Two classes of units are offered to investors in accordance with this PDS. The AUD hedged share class of the Underlying Fund, which the Hedged Class has indirect exposure to, will apply a currency hedging strategy for the purpose of mitigating fluctuations in the net asset value of the Fund due to currency movements. This strategy aims to mitigate the impact of changes in foreign currency. The use of Derivatives in this way involves additional costs and expenses, as well as certain special risks, including: dependence on the Investment Adviser's ability to predict movements in the value of investments being hedged and movements in interest rates and exchange rates, as well as the ability to time the implementation or the dissolution of hedging transactions, and imperfect correlation between the hedging instrument and the investments, securities or market sectors being hedged.

A currency hedging strategy is not applied in connection with the Unhedged Class of units. As such, investors are exposed to foreign currency movements which impact an investor's returns.

Fund risk

As with all managed funds, there are risks particular to the Fund, including that it could terminate, the fees and expenses could change, Equity Trustees is replaced as Responsible Entity or Partners Group Private Markets (Australia) Pty Ltd is replaced as Investment Manager. There is also a risk that investing in the Fund may give different results than investing directly in securities because of income or capital gains accrued in the Fund and the consequences of withdrawals by other investors.

Through investing in the Underlying Fund, the Fund's performance is dependent on the experience and network of the Underlying Fund's investment manager, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees. If the Underlying Fund's investment manager was to cease to provide services for any reason, and no suitable replacement were to be found, the Underlying Fund could experience difficulty in making new investments and/or in managing its existing investments, its business and prospects may be materially harmed and its results of operations and financial condition would be likely to suffer materially.

Settlement risk

The Underlying Fund will regularly make investments which are settled outside of established clearing systems. For example (i) investments made in non-listed companies, (ii) investments which are only based on agreements and for which the investor has no security as proof of the investment, or (iii) investments in securities where the delivery of securities does not occur at the same time as payment of the purchase price. Moreover the settlement of investments or dividends and/or realisations may be more difficult or become impossible because of circumstances which are not in the power of the Underlying Fund's investment manager (for example, because of technical problems, sovereign restrictions, acts of God etc.).

Real estate investments are generally illiquid

Real estate and related assets can be difficult to sell, especially if local market conditions are poor. This illiquidity can limit the ability of the Underlying Fund's investment manager to change the composition of the portfolio quickly in response to changes in economic or other conditions, and limits the ability to generate cash flow for distribution to investors. In addition, real estate valuation is inherently subjective due to the individual characteristics of each asset, and thus, coupled with illiquidity in the markets, creates challenges in valuing certain of the assets held within the Underlying Fund. As such, no assurances can be given that the valuations of the assets will be reflected in the actual sale prices even where such sales occur shortly after the relevant valuation date.

Interest rate risk

Changes in official interest rates can directly and indirectly impact (negatively or positively) on investment returns. Generally, real estate returns react positively when (i) interest rates fall, (ii) cap rates decrease, and (iii) net operating income is high or increasing. Changes in interest rates and cap rate spreads (i.e., capital market factors) often have a more significant impact on returns than net operating income (i.e., property market factors). In practice, however, a number of factors ultimately influence property values and many are specific to a particular property, property type, or geographic area.

Investments in land/new development

The Underlying Fund may acquire direct or indirect interests in undeveloped land or underdeveloped real property, which may often be non-income producing. To the extent that the Underlying Fund invests in such assets, it will be subject to the risks normally associated with such assets and development activities. Such risks include, without limitation, risks relating to the availability and timely receipt of zoning and other regulatory approvals, the cost and timely completion of construction (including risks beyond the control of the Underlying Fund, such as weather or labour conditions or material shortages), and the availability of both construction and permanent financing on favourable terms. These risks could result in substantial unanticipated delays or expenses and, under certain circumstances, could prevent completion of development activities once undertaken, any of which could have an adverse effect on the Underlying Fund and on the amount of funds available for distribution to investors. Properties under development or properties acquired to be developed may receive little or no cash flow from the date of acquisition through the date of completion of development and may experience operating deficits after the date of completion.

In addition, market conditions may change during the course of development that make such development less attractive than at the time it was commenced.

Environmental liabilities

The Underlying Fund may be exposed to substantial risk of loss from environmental claims arising out of investments made with undisclosed or unknown environmental problems with inadequate reserves, as well as from occupational safety issues and concerns. Under applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, an owner of real property may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous or toxic substances on or in such property. Such laws often impose such liability without regard to whether the owner knew of, or was responsible for, the presence of such hazardous or toxic substances. The cost of any required remediation and the owner's liability therefore as to any property are generally not limited under such laws and could exceed the value of the property and/or the aggregate assets of the owner. The presence of such substances, or the failure to properly remediate contamination from such substances, may adversely affect the owner's ability to sell the real estate or to borrow funds using such property as collateral, which could have an adverse effect on the Underlying Fund's return from such investment. Environmental claims with respect to a specific investment may exceed the value of such investment, and under certain circumstances, subject the other assets of the Underlying Fund to such liabilities.

Market risk

Changes in legal and economic policy, political events, technology failure, changes in interest rates, economic cycles, investor sentiment and social climate can all directly or indirectly create an environment that may influence (negatively or positively) the value of an investment in the Underlying Fund.

Conflicts of interest

Affiliates of the Investment Manager engage in financial advisory activities that are independent from those of the Fund. Affiliates of the Investment Manager may invest in, advise, sponsor and/or act as investment manager to investment vehicles and other persons or entities which may have structures, investment objectives and/or policies that are similar to (or different than) those of the Fund, which may compete with the Underlying Fund for investment opportunities, and which may co-invest with the Underlying Fund in certain transactions.

The Underlying Fund may invest in entities that are managed by the Investment Manager or its affiliates, including in respect of which it or its affiliates may receive investment management, advisory or other fees; provided that the Investment Manager shall ensure that in respect of the Fund's interest in such entities that such fees are either waived or rebated for the benefit of the Fund (with the exception of the performance fees charged in the Underlying Fund which will be retained by Partners Group).

The Investment Manager, or its affiliates, may provide services to an investment, or investment entities or vehicles associated with an investment, for separate compensation; the Fund's share of such compensation will be either reimbursed to the Underlying Fund (such credit being made either directly or indirectly for the benefit of the Underlying Fund) or reimbursed directly to the Fund.

Performance fee risk

While no performance fee is charged at the level of the Fund, a performance fee will be charged within the Underlying Fund.

The existence of a performance fee within the Underlying Fund may create an incentive for its investment manager to advise more speculative investments to the Underlying Fund than it would otherwise make in the absence of such performance-based arrangements. Moreover, the investment manager of the Underlying Fund will be entitled to receive performance fees on a deal-by-deal basis as follows: (i) a 15% performance fee based on the realised value of each secondary investment where an internal rate of return of 8% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment, (ii) a 20% performance fee based on the realised value of each direct investment where an internal rate of return of 8% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment, and (iii) a 10% performance fee based on the realised value of each direct debt investment where an internal rate of return of 4% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment.

Risks relating to accounting, auditing and financial reporting

Standards regarding publicity, accounting, auditing, reporting and legal conditions may be less stringent in countries where certain investments are acquired. This means that the reported value of such investments may deviate from that which would be reported in countries with more stringent standards.

Legal risk

This is an internationally focused investment and it is subject to the risk that laws may change in the jurisdictions where the Underlying Fund is invested or operates. There is also a risk that taxation or other applicable laws may change in Australia or in other jurisdictions that may affect the operation of the Fund and its investments.

Legal structuring risk

The investments in the Underlying Fund are held by the Company and not directly by the Fund, as such the Responsible Entity only has control over the assets on a contractual basis through the PPNs rather than directly holding the assets within the Fund. Strict limits and controls have been established to ensure the Company via the Investment Adviser complies with the Fund's investment strategy and the Responsible Entity also has the ability to require that the PPNs are redeemed within 14 Business Days' notice. However, there is no guarantee that the Company will immediately repay the PPNs to the Responsible Entity upon making such an election, particularly given the PPN agreements do not specify a period in which the PPNs must be fully repaid given the liquidity constraints that can be imposed within the Underlying Fund. Where an early repayment does occur, this could also have significant adverse consequences from a tax perspective both at the time of the repayment of the PPNs and on an ongoing basis.

Immediate repayment of PPNs

The Company's failure to comply with its contractual obligations to manage its assets in accordance with the Company's investment policy could have adverse tax and other consequences which could have a significant adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Pursuant to the PPN agreements, the Company is contractually obliged to ensure that its participation in the Underlying Fund is managed in accordance with the stated investment objective and policy. In the event that the Company fails to comply with these contractual obligations, the Responsible Entity can, subject to and in accordance with the terms of the PPN agreements, elect to give notice to the Company that the PPNs are, and shall immediately become, due and repayable (subject to the regulatory requirements). In such circumstances, the Company will instruct the redemption of its interest in the Underlying Fund. There is no guarantee that the Company will immediately repay the PPNs to the Responsible Entity upon making such an election, particularly given that the PPN agreements do not specify a period in which the PPNs must be fully repaid. Where an early repayment does occur, this could also have significant adverse consequences from a tax perspective both at the time of the repayment of the PPNs and on an ongoing basis.

Pandemic and other unforeseen event risk

Health crises, such as pandemic and epidemic diseases, as well as other catastrophes that interrupt the expected course of events, such as natural disasters, war or civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, power outages and other unforeseeable and external events, and the public response to or fear of such diseases or events, have and may in the future have an adverse effect on the economies and financial markets either in specific countries or worldwide and consequently on the value of the Fund's investments. Further, under such circumstances the operations, including functions such as trading and valuation, of the Investment Manager, and other service providers could be reduced, delayed, suspended or otherwise disrupted.

As a result, delays in processing your application may occur.

Cooling off period

No cooling off rights apply to Wholesale Clients.

Offers under this PDS are not available directly to Retail Clients in Australia. Australian Retail Clients may only indirectly invest in the Fund through their IDPS Operator. Indirect Investors should seek advice from their IDPS Operator as to whether cooling off rights apply to an investment in the Fund by the IDPS. The right to cool-off in relation to the Fund is not directly available to an Indirect Investor. This is because an Indirect Investor does not acquire the rights of a unit holder in the Fund. Rather, an Indirect Investor directs the IDPS Operator to arrange for their monies to be invested in the Fund on their behalf. The terms and conditions of the IDPS Guide or similar type document will govern an Indirect Investor's investment in relation to the Fund and any rights an Indirect Investor may have in this regard.

New Zealand Investors

New Zealand investors may directly invest in the Fund or may indirectly invest in the Fund through their IDPS Operator. Cooling off rights may apply to investors in New Zealand who directly invest in the Fund. If you wish to exercise your cooling off rights, you should contact the Responsible Entity of the Fund.

Access to your money

The Fund is priced monthly (generally, on the last day of the month unless Equity Trustees determines to price the Fund on another day).

Withdrawal requests must be submitted before 5:00pm on the 15th calendar day of any given month to be considered for processing that month.

Where the 15th calendar day of the month is a Saturday, Sunday or a New South Wales public holiday withdrawal requests will need to be lodged before 5:00pm on the last Business Day prior to the 15th calendar day.

Withdrawal requests are generally confirmed and paid on or around the 20th Business Day the following month, where the Responsible Entity has sufficient cash to pay the withdrawal proceeds. However, the Constitution allows the Responsible Entity to make payment up to 180 days after acceptance of a withdrawal request (which may be extended by a further 30 days or more in certain circumstances). The Responsible Entity reserves the right to change these withdrawal timeframes for the Fund subject to the above extensions of time.

The Responsible Entity has broad discretion to cease or delay the redemption of units in the Fund. In exceptional cases the Fund may also temporarily suspend the calculation of the withdrawal price or the Net Asset Value where the suspension is justified having regard to the interests of its investors. During this period, if the Responsible Entity believes it is in the best interests of investors, it may suspend withdrawals.

The Underlying Fund's directors at their discretion may charge investors of the Underlying Fund a redemption fee of up to 5% of the total value of the redemption request, which is for the benefit of the Underlying Fund. If the Underlying Fund levies the redemption fee, the Fund will levy a Sell Spread on the investors redeeming units in the Fund. Refer to 'Fees and other costs' for additional information on the Sell Spread.

If you have invested indirectly in the Fund through an IDPS, you need to provide your withdrawal request directly to your IDPS Operator. The time to process a withdrawal request will depend on the particular IDPS Operator.

Where the Fund is not Liquid (as defined in the Corporations Act) an investor does not have a right to withdraw from the Fund and can only withdraw where the Responsible Entity makes a withdrawal offer to investors in accordance with the Corporations Act. The Responsible Entity is not obliged to make such offers.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS MUST BE AWARE OF THE POTENTIAL LIMITATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THEIR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FROM THE FUND AND THE POTENTIAL COSTS OF WITHDRAWAL. NOTE THAT NEITHER THE RESPONSIBLE ENTITY NOR THE INVESTMENT MANAGER PROVIDE ANY GUARANTEES CONCERNING THE LIQUIDITY OF THE FUND AND THE ABILITY OF AN INVESTOR TO WITHDRAW ITS INVESTMENT OR THE LEVEL OF SELL SPREAD THAT WILL APPLY TO A WITHDRAWAL.

Withdrawal price

The withdrawal price of a unit in a class is based on the NAV of the relevant class divided by the number of units on issue in the class. The Responsible Entity can also make an allowance for the transaction costs required for selling investments to satisfy a withdrawal request. If the Underlying Fund charges a redemption fee, the Fund will levy a Sell Spread. Refer to 'Fees and other costs' for additional information on Sell Spread.

Making a withdrawal

Investors of the Fund can seek withdrawal of their investment by written request to either:

Partners Group Global Real Estate Fund (AUD)
C/- Partners Group Unit Registry
GPO BOX 804
MELBOURNE VIC 3001

Or

Email to partnersgroup_transactions@unitregistry.com.au

The minimum withdrawal amount is $5,000 for each of the Hedged Class and Unhedged Class. All withdrawal requests must be signed by the investor(s) and must be received by 5:00pm on the 15th calendar day of any given month for processing that month. Where the 15th calendar day of the month is a Saturday, Sunday or a New South Wales public holiday withdrawal requests will need to be lodged before 5:00pm on the last Business Day prior to the 15th calendar day.

Alternatively, if you have invested indirectly in the Fund through an IDPS, you will need to provide your withdrawal request directly to your IDPS Operator. You will need to contact the relevant IDPS Operator regarding their withdrawal request cut-off times for pricing purposes. The time to process a withdrawal request will depend on the particular IDPS Operator. You should refer to the IDPS Guide for the minimum withdrawal amount.

Withdrawal requests received from New Zealand investors must specify:

1. the withdrawal amount in Australian dollars; or
2. the number and class of units to be withdrawn.

We are unable to accept withdrawal amounts quoted in New Zealand dollars. Please note that the withdrawal amount paid to you will be in Australian dollars and may differ from the amount you receive in New Zealand dollars due to:

- foreign exchange spreads between Australian and New Zealand dollars (currency rate differs daily); and
- Overseas Telegraphic Transfer ("OTT") costs.

Withdrawals paid to New Zealand investors will only be paid directly to the investor's bank account held in the name of the investor with an Australian domiciled bank. Withdrawal payments will not be made to third parties.

The Withdrawal Price will vary as the market value of assets referable to the Fund rises or falls.

The Responsible Entity has a general discretion to deny a withdrawal request. Where a withdrawal request is accepted, the withdrawal proceeds will be paid directly to the investor's nominated bank account. This account must be in the name of the registered investor and held at a branch of an Australian domiciled bank. Withdrawal payments will not be made to third parties.

In some circumstances, where an investor makes a large withdrawal request (5% or more of the units on issue in the relevant class of units at the start of the relevant distribution period), their withdrawal proceeds may be taken to include a component of distributable income. Refer to the section headed 'Distributions'.

Minimum investment balance

Equity Trustees has the right to fully redeem an investment in the Fund if it falls below the required minimum balance of $20,000 (for each of the Hedged Class and Unhedged Class) or such other amount as the Responsible Entity determines from time to time. If you are investing through an IDPS you should refer to the IDPS Guide for the minimum balance.

Terms and conditions for withdrawals

Once your withdrawal request is received, your instruction may be acted on without further enquiry if the instruction bears your account number or investor details and your (apparent) signature(s), or your authorised signatory's (apparent) signature(s).

Equity Trustees and/or the Administrator reserve the right to ask for the production of original documents or other information to authenticate the communication. In the case of non-receipt or corruption of any message, you will be required to re-send the documents. Please note that messages sent via email must contain a duly signed document as an attachment.

No withdrawal proceeds will be paid unless the Administrator has received the withdrawal request signed by the investor or an authorised signatory. Neither Equity Trustees nor the Administrator shall be responsible for any mis-delivery or non-receipt of any facsimile or email. Facsimiles or emails sent to the Administrator shall only be effective when actually received by the Administrator.

5. Investing and withdrawing (continued)

When you are withdrawing, you should take note of the following:

- We are not responsible or liable if you do not receive, or are late in receiving, any withdrawal money that is paid according to your instructions.
- We may contact you to check your details before processing your withdrawal form. This may cause a delay in finalising payment of your withdrawal money. No interest is payable for any delay in finalising payment of your withdrawal money.
- If we cannot satisfactorily identify you as the withdrawing investor, we may refuse or reject your withdrawal request or payment of your withdrawal proceeds will be delayed. We are not responsible for any loss you consequently suffer.
- As an investor who is withdrawing, you agree that any payment made according to instructions received by post, courier or email, shall be a complete satisfaction of our obligations, despite any fact or circumstances such as the payment being made without your knowledge or authority.
- You agree that if the payment is made according to these terms, you and any person claiming through or under you, shall have no claim against us about the payment.
- The Constitution allows Equity Trustees to make payment up to 180 days after we accept a request (which may be extended by a further 30 days in certain circumstances).
- When the Fund is not Liquid, an investor can only withdraw when Equity Trustees makes a withdrawal offer to investors in accordance with the Corporations Act. Equity Trustees is not obliged to make such offers.
- If the Responsible Entity believes it is in the best interests of investors, it may suspend consideration of withdrawal requests and the payment of withdrawal proceeds for up to 30 days (or longer in circumstances outside its control, such as restricted or suspended trading or extreme price fluctuation or uncertainty in the market for an asset).

In the event that there is any material change to investor's withdrawal rights, investors will be informed in writing.

Extra-ordinary circumstances

The management company of the Underlying Fund has the ability to introduce additional measures to deal with extraordinary circumstances (for example, periods of extraordinary market and/or economic circumstances) or circumstances which in the reasonable opinion of the management company of the Underlying Fund warrant application of an 'Annual Dealing' procedure (as detailed below) in order to protect the interest of existing shareholders in the Underlying Fund. Such measures shall be of a temporary nature only and are expected to be lifted once circumstances have normalised or where the application of the Annual Dealing procedure is, in the reasonable opinion of the management company, no longer required. The management company may decide at its discretion not to accept redemptions and/or subscriptions for a period of up to 12 months, if deemed in the interest of existing shareholders of the Underlying Fund. In any case, no issue or redemption of shares in the Underlying Fund will take place during any period when the calculation of the net asset value is suspended. Shareholders in the Underlying Fund are required to be informed in a timely manner should the management company of the Underlying Fund decide to make use of any of these measures, and such information will then be promptly provided to investors of the Fund. Any shareholder of the Underlying Fund who has submitted a request for redemption of shares prior to such announcement may withdraw its request. If the redemption request is not withdrawn, the redemption will be deferred to the first valuation day following the termination of the suspension or at the "Annual Dealing Day", as the case may be.

While the management company of the Underlying Fund has full discretion in determining whether the Annual Dealing procedure is invoked, it would anticipate that the following situations would justify the introduction of the Annual Dealing procedure:

1. where the redemption queue resulting from the 5% gating restriction in the Underlying Fund is significant and extended over a prolonged period; and/or
2. where market circumstances are such that assets cannot be sold at their current valuation and to facilitate redemptions.

Investors should note that a suspension of redemptions by the Underlying Fund would almost invariably make the Fund non-Liquid and an investor would lose its rights to make a withdrawal (see above 'Access to your money').

The gating restriction in the Underlying Fund is explained in more detail in the 'Liquidity' section in section 4.

The Underlying Fund Annual Dealing Procedure

In relation to the Annual Dealing procedure within the Underlying Fund ("Annual Dealing"), redemption requests of shares in the Underlying Fund will, if accepted, be transacted on a secondary value dealing price (such price reflecting the expected or actual discount relative to net asset values, where assets are sold in the prevailing distressed market conditions as described in the Underlying Fund's prospectus). The first annual redemption day following the decision of the management company of the Underlying Fund to apply the Annual Dealing, shall be no later than 12 months after notice of such decision was given to shareholders.

In the context of the Underlying Fund, redemption proceeds shall normally be paid to redeeming shareholders by no later than 180 days following the respective annual redemption day of each calendar year, provided the Underlying Fund has sufficient liquid assets available from the proceeds of its assets as contemplated below. Should proceeds not be readily available, the management company of the Underlying Fund shall keep shareholders informed and pay redemption monies as soon as practicable when sufficient funds have been generated but not later than one year after the relevant annual redemption day.

A non-binding indication (or estimated range, as applicable) as to the estimated secondary value dealing price shall be made available to investors typically 30 days prior to the relevant annual redemption day or as soon as practicable thereafter at the registered office of the Underlying Fund. Shareholders must be aware that such indication is an estimate only and the applicable secondary value dealing price may differ from such indication and will be determined taking into account the sale proceeds of the selected assets as well as associated cost and expenses.

Where applicable, outstanding redemption orders received in connection with the monthly dealing procedure will automatically be transferred to the Annual Dealing. In such situation, redeeming shareholders of the Underlying Fund may withdraw their redemption request provided that such notice is given prior to the applicable annual redemption day.

In respect of each annual redemption day, net redemptions will not be limited and all shareholders of the Underlying Fund, whose redemption requests have been accepted, shall be transacted on the secondary value dealing price.

Distributions

General

An income distribution comprises the investor's share of any net income (including taxable gains) earned by the Fund. An investor's share of any distributable income for a class is calculated in accordance with the Constitution of the Fund and is usually based on the number of units in that class held by the investor at the end of the distribution period. However, in some circumstances, an investor may also receive a distribution from the Fund where they have made a large withdrawal from the Fund, such as where the withdrawal comprises 5% or more of the units on issue in the relevant class of units. In these circumstances their withdrawal proceeds are taken to include a component of distributable income and there is a reduction in the amount of distributable income distributed at the end of each distribution period.

Generally, the income entitlements of investors are determined at least annually (30 June) and distributions should normally be paid by 31 July (although a longer period is allowed for in accordance with the Constitution). Distributions to be reinvested will be reinvested the first Business Day in July. Indirect Investors should review their IDPS Guide for information on how and when they receive any income distribution. In certain circumstances, the Responsible Entity may advise investors that distributions will be paid as cash, until notified otherwise.

When distributions are reinvested, investors will, within 30 days of the day on which the units in the Fund are allotted to them, be sent a statement of the amount of the distribution and the number of units in the Fund that have been allotted to them. The aim of the Fund is to achieve capital growth, accordingly it is not anticipated that significant amounts of income will be distributed.

Investors may choose their distribution payment method from the following options:

- total distribution reinvested back into the Fund; or
- total distribution directly credited to a bank account in the name of the registered investor held at a branch of an Australian domiciled bank.

Please refer to the Application Form accompanying this PDS to direct how you would like your distributions paid.

If the investor has elected to receive the distribution in cash, where the Responsible Entity attempts to pay the money by electronic transfer and the electronic transfer fails on three occasions, the money payable to an investor may be held by the Responsible Entity for the investor or paid by the Responsible Entity in accordance with legislation relating to unclaimed monies.

5. Investing and withdrawing (continued)

New Zealand investors

If New Zealand investors elect to have their distribution paid in cash, they will need to nominate a bank account held in their own name with an Australian domiciled bank, otherwise the distribution must be reinvested. Cash distributions will only be paid in Australian dollars to such an account. When the distribution is reinvested, New Zealand investors will be allotted units in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in this PDS.

The reinvestment of distributions is offered to New Zealand investors on the following basis:

- At the time the price of the units allotted pursuant to the reinvestment of distributions is set, the Responsible Entity will not have any information that is not publicly available that would, or would be likely to, have a material adverse effect on the realisable price of the units if the information were publicly available.
- The right to acquire, or require the Responsible Entity to issue, units will be offered to all investors of the same class, other than those resident outside New Zealand and Australia who are excluded so as to avoid breaching overseas laws.

Units will be issued on the terms disclosed to you, and will be subject to the same rights as units issued to all investors of the same class as you.

There is available from the Responsible Entity, on request and free of charge, a copy of:

- the most recent annual report (if any) of the Fund;
- the most recent financial statements (if any) of the Fund and the auditor's report on those financial statements, or if those financial statements are not audited or reviewed by an auditor, a statement to that effect;
- the current PDS; and
- the Constitution for the Fund and any amendments to it.

These documents may be obtained by contacting Equity Trustees on +61 3 8623 5000 or online (with the exclusion of the Constitution of the Fund) at www.eqt.com.au/insto.

Valuation of the Fund

Under the Fund's Constitution there is an ability to issue different classes of units. Different classes of units may be issued with different fees and expenses. The value of a unit is generally derived on a monthly basis and is determined on the basis of the Net Asset Value of units in the class, which is calculated by deducting the value of the liabilities referable to the class from the value of the assets referable to the relevant class.

Generally, investments will be valued at the next available market value but other valuation methods and policies may be applied by Equity Trustees if appropriate or if otherwise required by law or applicable accounting standards.

The application price of a unit in a class in the Fund is based on the Net Asset Value of the class divided by the number of units on issue in respect of the relevant class. The Responsible Entity can also make an allowance for transaction costs required for buying investments when an investor acquires units.

Joint account operation

For joint accounts, unless indicated to the contrary on the Application Form, each signatory must sign withdrawal requests. Please ensure all signatories sign the declaration in the Application Form. Joint accounts will be held as joint tenants unless we are advised to the contrary in writing.

Authorised signatories

Investors may elect to appoint an authorised nominee to operate their account. The relevant sections on the Application Form need to be completed, including the name and signature of the authorised nominee, the signature of the investor and the date. Only investors can appoint authorised nominees. If you appoint an authorised nominee we suggest that you ensure that:

- they cannot appoint another nominee; and
- the appointment lasts until cancelled by you in writing or the Responsible Entity.

The Responsible Entity may cancel an appointment by giving the investor 14 days' notice in writing. If an appointment is cancelled the Responsible Entity will not be obliged to act on the instructions of the authorised nominee. If the instructions are varied, the Responsible Entity will act only in accordance with the varied instructions. By completing and lodging the relevant sections on authorised nominees on the Application Form you release, discharge and agree to indemnify Equity Trustees from and against any and all losses, liabilities, actions, proceedings, account claims and demands arising from Equity Trustees acting on the instructions of your authorised nominee.

You also agree that any instructions of your authorised nominee to Equity Trustees, which are followed by Equity Trustees, shall be a complete satisfaction of the obligations of Equity Trustees, notwithstanding any fact or circumstance, including that the instructions were made without your knowledge or authority. You agree that if the authorised nominee's instructions are followed by Equity Trustees, you and any person claiming through or under you shall have no claim against Equity Trustees in relation to the instructions.

An authorised nominee can, among other things:

- apply for additional investment units;
- request that distribution instructions be altered;
- withdraw all or part of your investment; and
- enquire as to the status of your investment and obtain copies of statements.

Withdrawal payments will not be made to third parties. If a company is appointed as an authorised nominee, the powers will extend to any director and authorised officer of the company. If a partnership, the powers will extend to all partners.

Electronic instructions

If an investor instructs Equity Trustees by electronic means, such as facsimile, email or internet, the investor releases Equity Trustees from and indemnifies Equity Trustees against, all losses and liabilities arising from any payment or action Equity Trustees makes based on any instruction (even if not genuine) that Equity Trustees receives by an electronic communication bearing the investor's investor code and which appears to indicate to Equity Trustees that the communication has been provided by the investor eg. a signature which is apparently the investor's and that of an authorised signatory for the investment or an email address which is apparently the investor's. The investor also agrees that neither they nor anyone claiming through them has any claim against Equity Trustees or the Fund in relation to such payments or actions. There is a risk that a fraudulent withdrawal request can be made by someone who has access to an investor's investor code and a copy of their signature or email address.

Equity Trustees will comply with any continuous disclosure obligation by lodging documents with ASIC as and when required to.

Copies of these documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Fund may be obtained from ASIC's website.

7. Fees and other costs

The warning statement below is required by law to be displayed at the beginning of the 'Fees and Other Costs' section of this PDS. The example given in the warning statement does not relate to any investments described within this PDS.

Did You Know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your investment balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100 000 to $80 000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower contribution fees and management costs where applicable. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To Find Out More

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed funds fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the managed investment scheme as a whole. For information on tax please see Section 8 of this PDS. You should read all the information about fees and costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Type of fee or cost	Amount	How and when paid
Fees when your money moves in or out of the Fund
Establishment fee The fee to open your investment	Nil	There is no establishment fee payable when you set up your investment in the Fund
Contribution fee The fee on each amount contributed to your investment	Nil	There is no contribution fee payable when you invest in the Fund
Withdrawal fee The fee on each amount you take out of your investment	Nil	There is no withdrawal fee payable when you withdraw investments from the Fund
Exit fee The fee to close your investment	Nil	There is no exit fee payable when you close your investment in the Fund

The Management Costs are calculated and accrued on a daily basis, and are reflected in the Net Asset Value and the price of units. Accrued fees are paid monthly in arrears from the Fund at the end of each month. The Investment Manager does not charge a performance fee directly. Additional explanation of fees and costs

What do the Management Costs pay for?

The Management Costs include responsible entity fees, investment management fees, custodian fees (excluding transaction-based fees such as trading or settlement costs incurred by the custodian), administration fees, Indirect Costs including performance related fees (see below), and other expenses. Fees payable to the Responsible Entity and Investment Manager are calculated and accrued daily based on the NAV of the Fund. The accrued fees are paid in arrears from the Fund at the end of each month. The Management Costs which are paid out of Fund assets reduce the NAV of the Fund and are reflected in the unit price. Management Costs include Indirect Costs and do not include transactional and operational costs (i.e. costs associated with investing the underlying assets). Management Costs do not include Extraordinary Costs.

Indirect Costs

Indirect Costs include fees arising from underlying funds that are interposed vehicles (i.e. the Underlying Fund), but do not include transactional and operational costs (i.e. costs associated with investing the underlying assets). The Fund's Indirect Costs are a reasonable estimate of the actual costs that were incurred and paid during the course of the financial year ending 30 June 2020. The Indirect Cost estimate will be updated detailing the actual costs incurred for the given year. Updates will be provided on Equity Trustees' website at www.eqt.com.au/insto where they are not otherwise required to be disclosed to investors under law.

Transactional and operational costs

In managing the assets of the Fund, the Fund may incur transactional and operational costs such as brokerage, settlement costs, clearing costs and applicable stamp duty when assets are bought and sold. This generally happens when the assets of the Fund are changed in connection with day-to-day trading or when there are applications or withdrawals which cause net cash flows into or out of the Fund.

Under normal trading conditions, we do not anticipate that there will be any transaction costs associated with the Fund, aside from a Sell Spread that may be applied in certain circumstances (such as market volatility). The Buy/Sell Spread is a reasonable estimate of transaction costs that the Fund will incur when buying or selling assets of the Fund. These costs are an additional cost to the investor but are incorporated into the unit price and arise when investing application monies and funding withdrawals from the Fund and are not separately charged to the investor. The Buy Spread is paid into the Fund as part of an application and the Sell Spread is left in the Fund as part of a redemption and not paid to Equity Trustees or the Investment Manager. As at the date of this PDS there is no Buy Spread applied to the Fund, however, a Sell Spread may be applied (please see below for further details). The Buy/Sell Spread can be altered by the Responsible Entity at any time. Transactional costs which are incurred other than in connection with applications and redemptions arise through the day-to-day trading of the Fund's assets and are reflected in the Fund's unit price. As these costs are factored into the net asset value of the Fund and reflected in the unit price, they are an additional implicit cost to the investor and are not a fee paid to the Responsible Entity. These costs can arise as a result of bid-offer spreads (the difference between an asset's bid/buy price and offer/ask price) being applied to securities traded by the Fund. Liquid securities generally have a lower bid-offer spread while less liquid assets have a higher bid-offer spread.

We estimate that the total transaction costs for the Hedged Class during the year ended 30 June 2020 was 0.57% of the Fund's net asset value, of which 18.8% of such amount was recouped via the Sell Spread when redemptions took place. We estimate that the total transaction costs for the Unhedged Class during the year ended 30 June 2020 was 0.47% of the Fund's net asset value, of which 22.9% of such amount was recouped via the Sell Spread when redemptions took place.

The Underlying Fund's directors at their discretion may charge investors of the Underlying Fund a redemption fee of up to 5% of the total value of the redemption request. Such redemption fee is for the benefit of the Underlying Fund. If the Underlying Fund levies the redemption fee, the Fund will levy a Sell Spread on the investors redeeming units in the Fund. In these circumstances, for a withdrawal of $50,000, the Sell Spread may be up to $2,500. The Responsible Entity reserves the right to reduce the Sell Spread, to the extent the redemption fee charged in the Underlying Fund is less than 5%.

Performance fees

There are no performance fees charged in respect of the Fund. However, the investment manager of the Underlying Fund will be entitled to receive certain performance fees that are described below.

IDPS or Financial Advisers

Investors investing through an IDPS or financial adviser should note that the fees outlined in this section are in addition to (i.e. do not include) any other fees charged by the IDPS Operator or financial adviser.

Expense recoveries

Equity Trustees will be reimbursed, out of the assets of the Fund, for all expenses incurred in managing and operating the Fund, including any Extraordinary Costs (such as the costs of unit holder meetings, legal advice/proceedings and other irregular expenses). If incurred, Extraordinary Costs will be in addition to the Management Costs. The Constitution does not place any limit on the amount of the Extraordinary Costs that can be paid from the Fund and neither Equity Trustees nor the Investment Manager is obliged to pay for Extraordinary Costs out of its own monies.

Multiple Levels of Expense

It should be noted that in addition to the fees charged within the Fund, many of the investments in which the Underlying Fund participates (including investments which may be managed by Partners Group affiliates) may also charge management and performance fees. All fees and costs of Interposed Vehicles are included in the Indirect Costs calculation.

7. Fees and other costs (continued)

Performance Fee

There are no performance fees charged in respect of the Fund. However, the investment manager of the Underlying Fund will be entitled to receive performance fees on a deal-by-deal basis as follows: (i) a 15% performance fee based on the realised value of each secondary investment where an internal rate of return of 8% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment, (ii) a 20% performance fee based on the realised value of each direct investment where an internal rate of return of 8% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment, and (iii) a 10% performance fee based on the realised value of each direct debt investment where an internal rate of return of 4% per annum has been achieved on the relevant investment.

The average performance fees that were paid in the Underlying Fund for the period 1 July 2019 – 30 June 2020 were 0.19% as a percentage of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Responsible Entity does not consider there is any reasonable basis on which it may estimate performance fees of the Underlying Fund. To estimate the performance fees would involve speculation about the future performance of the Underlying Fund. The Responsible Entity therefore considers that providing an estimate for performance fees may potentially be misleading.

GST

All fees and costs disclosed in this PDS are inclusive of GST less the Fund's entitlement to any RITCs (where applicable). Please note that the Fund is likely to be entitled to as yet undetermined additional input tax credits on certain fees and costs incurred. If, for any reason the Fund is not entitled to receive an input tax credit for expenses incurred, the additional GST cost will be incurred out of the Fund's assets.

Negotiable fees

The Responsible Entity (or the Investment Manager) may from time to time negotiate different fee arrangements (by way of commission or the rebate of investment management fees) with certain investors who qualify as Wholesale Clients. For example, the Investment Manager may rebate some of the investment management fee to IDPS Operators because they offer the Fund on their investment menu.

Payments to IDPS Operators

The Investment Manager may make payments to IDPS Operators. Such payments are effectively rebates of its fees. The amount of product access payments is negotiated directly with IDPS Operators and is typically based on the volume of business generated by the IDPS Operator. Product access payments are paid out of the Investment Manager's fees and are not an additional cost to the investor.

Can the fees change?

Equity Trustees can change all the Fund's fees (including fees which are currently nil, such as the withdrawal fee) without investor consent, subject to the maximum fee amounts specified in the Constitution. Reasons might include changing economic conditions and changes in regulation. We have the right to recover all proper and reasonable expenses incurred in managing the Fund and as such these fees may increase or decrease accordingly. Equity Trustees will generally provide investors with at least 30 days' notice of any proposed change to the responsible entity fee. Expense recoveries and the Buy/Sell Spread may change without notice, for example, when it is necessary to protect the interests of existing members and if permitted by law.

Example of annual fees and costs

This table gives an example of how the fees and costs for the Fund can affect your investment over a one year period. You can use this table to compare this product against other managed investment products.

Example – Partners Group Global Real Estate Fund (AUD)		Balance of $50,000 with a contribution of $5,000 during the year
Contribution Fees	Nil	For every additional $5,000 you put in, you will be charged $0.
Management Costs		And for every $50,000 you have in the Fund (applicable to each of the Hedged Class and Unhedged Class of units), you will be charged:
Fees, costs and expenses directly payable within the Fund	1.75% p.a. ¹	$875 each year
Indirect Costs (estimate only)	1.47%	Indirect Costs of $735, which are likely to vary from year to year
Equals Cost of Fund		If you had an investment of $50,000 at the beginning of the year and you put in an additional $5,000 during the year, you would have incurred fees from: $1,610 ² What it costs you will depend on the fees you negotiate.

- 1 This example assumes the $5,000 contribution occurs at the end of the first year, therefore Management Costs are calculated using the $50,000 balance only.
- 2 Additional fees may apply. Please note that this example does not capture all the fees and costs that may apply to you. Additional fees may be paid to a financial advisor if you have consulted a financial adviser. You should refer to the Financial Services Guide (FSG) and Statement of Advice provided by your financial adviser in which details of the fees are set out. ASIC provides a fee calculator on www.moneysmart.gov.au, which you may use to calculate the effects of fees and costs on your investment in the Fund.

8. Taxation

The following information summarises some of the Australian and New Zealand taxation issues you may wish to consider before making an investment in the Fund and assumes that you hold your investment in the Fund on capital account and are not considered to be carrying on a business of investing, trading in investments or investing for the purpose of profit making by sale. The information should be used as a guide only and does not constitute professional tax advice as individual circumstances may differ.

This summary is based on the Australian and New Zealand taxation laws in effect as at the date of this PDS. A number of tax reform measures are currently under review by the Australian Government. These reforms may impact on the tax position of the Fund and its investors. Accordingly, it is recommended that investors seek their own professional advice, specific to their own circumstances, of the taxation implications of investing in the Fund.

Australian Taxation Treatment of the Fund

General

The Fund is an Australian resident trust estate for Australian tax purposes. Therefore, the Fund is required to determine its net income (taxable income) for the year of income. On the basis that investors will be attributed their share of assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits) of the Fund and the Fund is not a public trading trust, the Fund should be treated as a flow-through trust for tax purposes. This means that investors should be taxed on an attribution basis or on their share of the Fund's net taxable income and the Fund should not be subject to Australian income tax.

In the case where the Fund makes a loss for Australian income tax purposes, the Fund cannot distribute the tax loss to investors. However, the tax loss may be carried forward by the Fund for offset against future assessable income of the Fund in subsequent years, subject to the operation of the trust loss recoupment rules.

Attribution Managed Investment Trust ("AMIT")

– core rules

The Fund is an eligible AMIT, and has elected into the AMIT rules effective from 1 July 2017. The AMIT legislation applies an attribution model whereby Equity Trustees as the Responsible Entity of the Fund attributes amounts of trust components of a particular character to investors (or "members") on a fair and reasonable basis consistent with the operation of the Fund's Constitution, which includes provisions in relation to AMIT. On the basis the Fund qualifies as an AMIT, the following will apply:

Fair and reasonable attribution: Each year, the Fund's 'determined trust components' of assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits) will be attributed to investors on a "fair and reasonable" basis, having regard to their income and capital entitlements under the Constituent Documents for the Fund, rather than being allocated proportionally based on each investor's present entitlement to the income of the Fund.

'Unders' or 'Overs' adjustments: Where the Fund's determined trust components for a year are revised in a subsequent year (e.g. due to actual amounts differing to the estimates of income, gains / losses or expenses), then 'unders' and 'overs' may arise. 'Unders' and 'overs' will generally be carried forward and adjusted in the year of discovery.

Cost base adjustments: Where the distribution made is less than (or more than) certain components attributed to investors, then the cost base of an investor's units may be increased (or decreased). Details of cost base adjustments will be included on an investor's annual tax statement, referred to as an AMIT Member Annual Statement ("AMMA").

Large redemptions: In certain circumstances, gains may be attributed to a specific investor, for example, gains on disposal of assets to fund a large redemption being attributed to the redeeming investor.

Penalties: In certain circumstances (e.g. failure to comply with certain AMIT rules), specific penalties may be imposed.

AMIT multi-class election

Multi-class AMITs: The Fund has made the AMIT multi-class election. The effect of the election is that the two classes of units in the Fund, the AUD class and AUD unhedged class, will be treated as separate AMITs for tax purposes. The AMIT multi-class election will continue to apply provided that the Fund continues to satisfy the relevant criteria to be an AMIT in any given year of income, which Equity Trustees expects to be the case.

Both classes share in the income, gains and losses from a pool of global real estate securities via the Profit Participating Notes (PPNs). The Company has issued two PPNs to the Fund. The AUD class holds the AUD PPN hedged, and the AUD unhedged class holds the AUD PPN unhedged.

The Company invests in two distributing AUD unit classes of the Underlying Fund, being the Class (I) AUD hedged (which is hedged to AUD) which relates to the AUD PPN hedged, and the Class (I) AUD unhedged (not hedged to AUD) which relates to the AUD PPN unhedged.

The Fund's determined trust components of assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits) are attributed between the classes on this basis. The amounts attributed to each class will be attributed to members of each class of units according to their proportionate unit holding in each class. In applying these principles, Equity Trustees as the Responsible Entity of the Fund will have regard to the AMIT rules, including the AMIT specific multi-class rules, the Constitution of the Fund and this PDS, and the ATO's Law Companion Ruling LCR 2015/5.

In a year of income, if one class has a tax loss for a year, that tax loss may not be offset against taxable income of the other class. Instead it would be quarantined within that class (as each class is treated as a separate AMIT) and carried forward for offset against future income of that class.

Fund not an AMIT

The Fund may not be an AMIT for a given income year (e.g. it does not qualify as a MIT for that year). The AMIT regime and the AMIT multi-class rules will not apply in this case for that year of income. Instead, the general trust provisions of the tax law apply. However, unders and overs from a prior year in which the Fund was an AMIT will continue to be carried forward and applied in calculating the taxable income of the Fund, generally for a period of up to 4 years.

The Fund will be required to determine its net (taxable) income for the income year. Each Investor, irrespective of class, will be assessed on that share of net income that accords to the proportion of the 'income of the trust' to which they are 'presently entitled' for that year, even if they receive or reinvest a distribution after year end. On the basis that Investors are presently entitled to all of the trust income for that year, the Responsible Entity should not be assessed on the net (taxable) income of the Fund and it will be treated as a flow through entity for income tax purposes.

Tax treatment of the Profit Participating Notes ('PPNs')

As noted in section 3.4, the Fund will gain its investment exposure to the Underlying Fund via the PPNs, which in legal form are debentures issued by the Company. As such, the Fund will invest directly into the PPNs and not the underlying investments held by the Company or the Underlying Fund to meet its obligations to investors.

For Australian income tax purposes, the interest held by the Fund in the PPNs should be classified as equity instruments, being non-share equity interests. On this basis, payments under the PPNs by the Company to the Fund should be characterised for tax purposes as a non-share dividend (from foreign sources), and assessable when paid (or credited) to the Fund.

Managed Investment Trust ("MIT") Capital Gains Tax ("CGT") Election

The Responsible Entity has not elected for deemed capital account treatment for 'covered' assets. Consequently, covered assets (including the interest in the PPNs) are deemed to be held by the Fund on revenue account. Realised gains and losses on disposal of covered assets will be treated as ordinary income and allowable deductions respectively.

Controlled Foreign Company ("CFC") Provisions / Foreign Hybrid rules

In broad terms the CFC provisions and foreign hybrid provisions may result in gains and losses from certain passive investments being taxed on an accruals basis. If CFC interests or foreign hybrid interests are held by the Fund at the end of the income year, the net income of the Fund may include a share of the net income and gains (i.e. CFC attributable income or foreign hybrid partnership net income) from such investments. As the CFC provisions and foreign hybrid provisions do not apply to non-share equity interests that do not provide the holder with rights as a 'shareholder' in the company, as defined in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the CFC provisions and foreign hybrid provisions should not apply in respect of the PPN interests held by the Fund.

Taxation of Financial Arrangements ("TOFA")

The TOFA rules may apply to "financial arrangements" held by the Fund when calculating the Fund's assessable income. Broadly, the TOFA rules may require certain income to be recognised on an accruals basis. As the investments of the Fund are equity investments, the TOFA rules would only apply if the Responsible Entity elects for specific TOFA tax timing elections.

As no TOFA tax timing elections will be made, the TOFA rules should not apply to the PPNs. Accordingly the non-share dividend income from the PPNs will be assessable to the Fund when paid rather than on an accruals basis.

Public trading trust rules

The Fund does not intend to derive income other than from an 'eligible investment business' for income tax purposes. Accordingly, it should not be classified as a 'public trading trust' and taxed as a company. Further, the Responsible Entity will seek to ensure it does not control entities that carry on trading activities that could result in the Fund being a public trading trust.

Taxation Reform

The tax information included in this PDS is based on the taxation legislation and administrative practice as at the issue date of this PDS, together with proposed changes to the taxation legislation as announced by the Australian Government. However, the Australian tax system is in a continuing state of reform, and based on the Government's reform agenda, it is likely to escalate rather than diminish. Any reform of a tax system creates uncertainty as to the full extent of announced reforms, or uncertainty as to the meaning of new law that is enacted pending interpretation through the judicial process. These reforms may impact on the tax position of the Fund and its investors. Accordingly, it will be necessary to closely monitor the progress of these reforms, and investors should seek their own professional advice, specific to their own circumstances, of the taxation implications of investing in the Fund.

Tax File Number ("TFN") and Australian Business Number ("ABN")

It is not compulsory for an investor to quote their TFN or ABN. If an investor is making this investment in the course of a business or enterprise, the investor may quote an ABN instead of a TFN. Failure by an investor to quote an ABN or TFN or claim an exemption may cause the Responsible Entity to withhold tax at the top marginal rate, plus the Medicare Levy, on gross payments including distributions or attribution of income to the investor. The investor may be able to claim a credit in their tax return for any TFN or ABN tax withheld. Collection of TFNs is permitted under taxation and privacy legislation.

By quoting their TFN or ABN, the investor authorises Equity Trustees to apply it in respect of all the investor's investments with Equity Trustees. If the investor does not want to quote their TFN or ABN for some investments, Equity Trustees should be advised.

GST

The Fund is registered for GST. The acquisition and disposal of units in the Fund by investors should not be subject to GST. Similarly, the distributions paid by the Fund should not be subject to GST.

The Fund may be required to pay GST included in management and other fees, charges costs and expenses incurred by the Fund. However, to the extent permissible, the Responsible Entity will claim on behalf of the Fund a proportion of this GST as a Reduced Input Tax Credit ("RITC"). Unless otherwise stated, fees and charges quoted in this PDS are inclusive of GST and take into account any available RITCs. The Fund may be entitled to as yet undetermined additional input tax credits on the fees, charges or costs incurred. If the Responsible Entity is unable to claim input tax credits on behalf of the Fund, the Responsible Entity retains the ability to recover the entire GST component of all fees and charges.

The impact of GST payments and credits will be reflected in the unit price of the Fund. Investors should seek professional advice with respect to the GST consequences arising from their unit holding.

Australian Taxation of Australian Resident Investors

Distributions of the Fund

In income years in which the Fund is an AMIT, investors will be subject to tax on the taxable income of the Fund on an attribution basis, as discussed above.

For each year of income, each Australian resident investor will be required to include within their own tax calculations and tax return filings the assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits) of the Fund attributed to them by Equity Trustees as the Responsible Entity of the Fund.

The tax consequences for investors in the Fund depends on the tax components of assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits) of the Fund attributed to them.

Investors will receive an AMMA statement detailing all relevant taxation information concerning attributed amounts and cash distributions, including any Foreign Income Tax Offset ("FITO") entitlements, returns of capital, assessable income, and any upwards or downwards cost base adjustment in the capital gains tax cost base of their units in the Fund. Based on the investment strategy of the Fund, gains derived by the Fund are likely to be treated as ordinary income, rather than capital gains.

Should the cost base of an Investor's units be reduced below zero, the amounts in excess of the Investor's cost base should be a capital gain that should be included in the Investor's calculation of their net capital gain or loss for the income year.

An investor may receive their share of the attributed tax components of the Fund in respect of distributions made during the year or where they have made a large withdrawal from the Fund, in which case their withdrawal proceeds may include attributed tax components of assessable income, exempt income, non-assessable non-exempt income and tax offsets (i.e. tax credits). In addition, because Australian investors can move into and out of the Fund at different points in time, there is the risk that taxation liabilities in respect of gains that have benefited past investors may have to be met by subsequent investors.

Fund not an AMIT

Each Investor will be assessed on that share of the Fund's net taxable income that accords to the proportion of the 'income of the trust' to which they were presently entitled for that year. For each income year that the Fund is not an AMIT, the Responsible Entity shall confer present entitlement to all of the Fund's trust income to investors pro rata to their proportionate unitholding in the Fund, on the date of the entitlement. Investors will be required to include their share of net taxable income for a given income year in their tax return for that year. Each investor will receive an annual tax statement outlining the taxable components of distributions made by the Fund.

Foreign Income

The Fund is expected to derive foreign source income under the PPNs that may be subject to foreign tax overseas, for example withholding tax. Australian resident investors should include in their assessable income their share of foreign income inclusive of foreign taxes. In such circumstances, investors may be entitled to a FITO for the foreign tax paid, against the Australian tax payable on the foreign sourced income. Excess FITOs that are not utilised cannot be carried forward to a future income year.

Disposal of Units by Australian Resident Investors

If an Australian resident investor transfers or redeems their units in the Fund, this will constitute a disposal (or CGT event) for income tax purposes.

Where an investor holds their units in the Fund on capital account, a capital gain or loss on the disposal may arise and each investor should calculate their capital gain or loss according to their own particular facts and circumstances. As noted above, proceeds on disposal may include a component of distributable income. In calculating the taxable amount of a capital gain, the investor may be eligible for a discount of 50% for individuals and trusts (conditions apply) or 33 1/3% for complying Australian superannuation funds, where the units in the Fund have been held for 12 months or more (excluding the date of acquisition and date of disposal). No CGT discount is available to corporate investors.

Any capital losses arising from the disposal of the investment may be used to offset other capital gains the investor may have derived. Net capital losses may be carried forward for offset against capital gains of subsequent years but may not be offset against ordinary income.

The discount capital gains concession may be denied in certain circumstances where an investor (together with associates) holds 10% or more of the issued units of the Fund, the Fund has less than 300 beneficiaries and other requirements are met. Investors who together with associates are likely to hold more than 10% of the units in the Fund should seek advice on this issue.

Australian Taxation of Non-Resident InvestorsTax on Income

In general, distributions of foreign sourced income to non-resident investors would generally not be subject to Australian tax or withholding tax (unless, for example, the income is derived through an Australian permanent establishment of the non-resident investor).

Australian withholding tax may be withheld from distributions of Australian source income and gains attributed to a non-resident investor. The various components of the net income of the Fund which will be regarded as having an Australian source may include Australian sourced interest and Australian sourced gains.

We recommend that non-resident investors seek independent tax advice before investing, taking into account their particular circumstances and the provisions of any relevant Double Taxation Agreement / Exchange of Information Agreement ("EOI") between Australia and their country of residence.

Disposal of Units by Non-Resident Investors

Based on the Fund's investment profile, generally non-resident investors holding their units on capital account should not be subject to Australian capital gains tax on the disposal of units in the Fund unless the units were capital assets held by the investor in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia. Australian tax may apply in certain circumstances if the non-resident holds their units on revenue account. Capital gains tax may also apply in some cases where the Fund has a direct or indirect interest in Australian real property. We recommend that non-resident investors seek independent tax advice in relation to the tax consequences of the disposal of their units.

New Zealand investors

If you are a New Zealand resident wishing to invest in Australia, we recommend that you seek independent professional tax advice. New Zealand resident investors will be taxed on their units under the foreign investment fund rules or ordinary tax rules, depending on their circumstances. Australian tax at the prescribed rates will be withheld from distributions to non-residents to the extent that the distributions comprise of relevant Australian sourced income or gains. References to 'residence' in this section are to tax residence and the terms 'resident' or 'residency' have equivalent meanings.

8. Taxation (continued)

New Zealand Taxation

The following summary of New Zealand taxation matters is a general guide that outlines the New Zealand taxation implications applicable to New Zealand resident investors, but it is not a comprehensive summary. The summary is based on the New Zealand tax laws as at the date of this PDS. The New Zealand tax laws are subject to continual change, and as the tax treatment applicable to particular investors may differ, it is recommended that all New Zealand investors seek their own professional advice on the taxation implications before investing in the Fund.

The following summary relates to direct investment into the Fund - indirect investors need to consider the nature of the platform through which they invest. It assumes that no New Zealand resident investor will have an interest of 10% or more of the Fund. The New Zealand taxation treatment of an investment in Australian securities is not the same as for an investment in New Zealand securities.

Classification of the Fund - New Zealand investors

The Fund is a unit trust (which is deemed to be a "company") for New Zealand tax purposes. New Zealand resident investors are treated as holding shares in an Australian resident company.

Dividend Taxation

The rules outlined below apply to New Zealand resident natural person investors and a limited range of trusts including testamentary trusts whose offshore portfolio investments cost NZ$50,000 or less, unless they elect to be taxed under the Foreign Investment Fund rules (refer to the next section).

All foreign portfolio investments held by the investor (including units in the Fund) are taken into account in ascertaining whether the NZ$50,000 cost threshold is exceeded, except for certain excluded investments. In particular, the cost of most shares listed on an approved index of the Australian Securities Exchange and units issued by certain Australian unit trusts (which regularly turn-over their assets and maintain a New Zealand resident withholding tax proxy) are excluded from the calculation.

Distributions

If the investor is under the NZ$50,000 cost threshold, then the investor will be treated as deriving a dividend for tax purposes at the time any income is distributed to them or reinvested in the Fund.

Investors will be taxed on dividends derived from the Fund at their relevant marginal tax rate. Investors will be required to include the full amount of the dividend (including any Australian withholding tax deducted in an income tax return. Any Australian withholding tax deducted from the dividend should be able to be credited against the investor's income tax liability (although the credit may not exceed the investor's New Zealand tax liability on the dividend).

Redemption of units

Gains realised in excess of the amount paid on the issue of the units (and in excess of the amount of any distribution applied in reinvested units), converted to New Zealand dollars at the time of redemption, will be treated as a dividend at the time the units are redeemed unless the redemption is at least 15% or more of the investor's total investment and the Fund has available subscribed capital at least equal to the redemption proceeds or unless the redemption is not part of a pro rata cancellation and the Fund has available subscribed capital at least equal to the redemption proceeds. The tax treatment of such a deemed dividend is the same as outlined above in relation to distributions.

Investors will be treated as having disposed of their units on redemption. Those investors who would otherwise be taxable on any gain derived from the sale of their units (see below) will continue to be taxable on any gain in excess of the amount treated as a dividend.

Sale of units

An amount derived by an investor from any sale or disposition of their units in the Fund will be taxable if:

- the investor is in the business of dealing in shares or similar property (including units in unit trusts);
- the investor purchased the units for the purpose of resale; or
- the amount is received in connection with a profit-making undertaking or scheme.

Investors who are taxable on amounts received on the sale or disposition of their units will be allowed a tax deduction equal to the amount applied in subscription for the units being redeemed.

We recommend investors seek tax advice in such circumstances to confirm their tax position.

New Zealand Foreign Investment Fund Taxation

The New Zealand Foreign Investment Fund (FIF) rules apply to New Zealand resident investors who are not subject to Dividend Taxation (refer to the previous section).

Strict rules govern the method that may be used for calculating FIF income and also restrict the ability to change between methods.

Fair dividend rate method

The main method for calculating taxable income under the FIF rules is the Fair Dividend Rate ("FDR") method.

Under the FDR method, a New Zealand investor derives taxable income each year equal to 5% of the New Zealand dollar market value of the investor's total offshore share portfolio (including the investment in the Fund) measured at the beginning of the income year (1 April in most cases) adjusted for any quick sales. This is the FDR Annual method. Currency conversion is at either the actual rate, the rolling 12-month annual rate, or the mid-month actual rate (at the New Zealand investor's option), and must be applied consistently across all investments that the New Zealand investor holds that are subject to FDR (and consistently for later income years).

A modified version of the FDR method applies to a New Zealand investor who is a "unit valuing fund" or who elects to use this method on a daily basis. This is the FDR Periodic method. Broadly, a New Zealand investor will be a unit valuing fund if it invests on behalf of others and values its own investors' interests periodically throughout the income year. Under this version of the FDR method, an investor is deemed to derive taxable income equal to 5% of the New Zealand dollar market value of the investor's total offshore share portfolio (including the investment in the Fund) at the start of the unit valuation period, multiplied by a fraction, being the number of days in the period divided by 365 (or 366 in tax years that include 29 February). The investor's income for the year is the total of the amounts calculated for each valuation period in the year.

Income distributions, whether reinvested or received, are not separately taxable to New Zealand investors where the FDR method is applied.

There are situations where an investor may not be able to use the FDR method, such as:

- the investment is an interest in a Controlled Foreign Company ("CFC")¹; or
- certain investments are prohibited from using the FDR method. Generally, for New Zealand debt like investments (which can include where the investment is FX hedged), the FDR method cannot be used. The PPN which is non-share equity for Australian tax purposes, may be a financial arrangement for New Zealand tax purposes and, therefore, may make the investment in the fund a debt like investment for New Zealand tax purposes. We recommend investors seek tax advice to confirm the use of the FDR method.

If units were not held on the measurement date (i.e. 1 April) and the FDR method is used, FDR income for the year will be nil. Any distributions received during the income year will not be taxed separately. Conversely, if units are redeemed during the tax year, FDR income is not changed – the FDR income calculated at the commencement of the tax year is taxable. From 1 April 2016, investors may choose to change between the FDR Annual method and FDR Periodic method no more than once every four years.

Comparative value method

New Zealand natural persons and family trust investors can elect to be taxed on their actual gain (i.e., aggregate gains and losses in market value over the year, distributions and net sale or redemption proceeds) under the comparative value ("CV") method, if the actual return is less than the deemed 5% return under the FDR method for the particular year. However, net portfolio losses are not deductible where the CV method is applied. Currency conversion is as per that applying to the FDR method (as outlined above).

If an investor elects to use the CV method for the investment in the Fund, it must be applied (with limited exceptions) to all offshore portfolio equity investments held by the investor for that income year which are subject to the FIF Rules. That is, the investor must choose between the CV method and the FDR method for the investor's whole portfolio.

Investment losses

No tax deduction is available to an investor under the FDR or CV methods if the units decline in value during a tax year.

¹ A foreign company is a CFC where there is a group of five or fewer New Zealand residents whose total control interests in the company are more than 50% in any one of the control interest categories or a single New Zealand resident holds a control interest of 40% or more unless at the same time the person's control interest is less than or equal to a control interest in the same category held by another person and the other person is not a New Zealand resident and the other person is not associated with the New Zealand resident.

8. Taxation (continued)

Disposal of Units by New Zealand Investors

Gains made on the redemption or the disposal of units in the Fund that are not quick sale units (see below) are not taxable to New Zealand investors where the FDR method is applied.

Where the New Zealand investor buys and sells units in the Fund within the same income year and uses the annual FDR method or the New Zealand investor uses the periodic FDR method, buys and sells units in the Fund within the unit valuation period and has a unit valuation period of more than one day, the units will be classified as “quick sale” units. In that case, the investor’s FDR income for the year is increased by the lesser of:

- 5% of the “cost” of the quick sale units (the “cost” per unit of any quick sale unit is the average per unit cost of all units acquired during the year or unit valuation period); and
- the investor’s actual return on the quick sale units (i.e., all distributions received and proceeds received on disposal/redemption of the investment, less the average cost of units acquired during the year or unit valuation period).

Where the CV method is applied for the period in which the disposal occurs, proceeds derived from the sale of the Units will be taken into account in the CV method calculation (refer to the summary of the CV method calculation above).

Australian withholding taxes

Any Australian withholding tax deducted from distributions from the Fund may be credited against the New Zealand investor’s income tax liability in respect of the investment in the Fund calculated under the FIF rules. The amount of the credit allowed is the lesser of the New Zealand tax payable on the FIF income for the units or the Australian withholding tax paid.

New Zealand GST

No New Zealand GST is payable on any distributions nor in respect of the subscription, acquisition, disposal or withdrawal of units in the Fund.

Consents

Partners Group Private Markets (Australia) Pty Ltd, has given, and at the date of this PDS, has not withdrawn, its written consent to be named in the PDS as the Investment Manager.

Partners Group Private Markets (Australia) Pty Ltd, has also given, and at the date of this PDS, has not withdrawn, its written consent to be named in the PDS as the Promoter of the Fund.

By providing their consent, the Investment Manager and Promoter confirms that:

- (a) the statements to which it has consented above are correct in every material respect and are not misleading or deceptive in the form and context in which they appear in the PDS;
- (b) it will, as reasonably required by Equity Trustees, formally verify such statements, in accordance with Equity Trustees' due diligence procedures; and
- (c) it will notify Equity Trustees immediately if it becomes aware that any such statements are not correct in every material respect or are misleading or deceptive (whether or not they were correct and not misleading or deceptive at the date of the PDS).

Other than the provision of consent, the Investment Manager and Promoter has not been involved in the preparation of this PDS or caused or otherwise authorised the issue of this PDS. The Investment Manager and Promoter nor any of its employees or officers, accept any responsibility arising in any way for errors or omissions in this PDS, other than those statements for which it has provided its written consent to Equity Trustees for inclusion in this PDS.

Non-listing of units

The units of the Fund are not listed on any stock exchange and no application will be made to list the units of the Fund on any stock exchange.

Termination of the Fund

Equity Trustees may resolve at any time to terminate and liquidate the Fund (if it provides investors with notice) in accordance with the Constitution and the Corporations Act. Upon termination and after conversion of the assets of the Fund into cash and payment of, or provision for, all costs, expenses and liabilities (actual and anticipated), the net proceeds will be distributed pro-rata among all investors according to the aggregate of the Withdrawal Price for each of the units they hold in the Fund. The Fund may also be terminated earlier upon determination by an extraordinary resolution of its members.

Our legal relationship with you

Equity Trustees' responsibilities and obligations, as the Responsible Entity of the Fund, are governed by the Constitution of the Fund, as well as the Corporations Act and general trust law. The Constitution of the Fund contains a number of provisions relating to the rights, terms, conditions and obligations imposed on both Equity Trustees, as the Responsible Entity of the Fund, and investors.

Equity Trustees may amend the Constitution if it considers that the amendment will not adversely affect investors' rights. Otherwise the Constitution may be amended by way of a special resolution of investors.

To the extent that any contract or obligation arises in connection with the acceptance by Equity Trustees of an application or reliance on this PDS by an investor, any amendment to the Constitution may vary or cancel that contract or obligation. Further, that contract or obligation may be varied or cancelled by a deed executed by Equity Trustees with the approval of a special resolution of investors, or without that approval if Equity Trustees considers the variation or cancellation will not materially and adversely affect investor's rights.

A copy of the Constitution of the Fund is available, free of charge, on request from Equity Trustees.

Compliance plan

Equity Trustees has prepared and lodged a compliance plan for the Fund with ASIC. The compliance plan describes the procedures used by Equity Trustees to comply with the Corporations Act and the Constitution of the Fund. Each year the compliance plan for the Fund is audited and the audit report is lodged with ASIC.

Unit pricing discretions policy

Equity Trustees has developed a formal written policy in relation to the guidelines and relevant factors taken into account when exercising any discretion in calculating unit prices (including determining the value of assets and liabilities). A copy of the policy and, where applicable and to the extent required, any other relevant documents in relation to the policy (such as records of any discretions which are outside the scope of, or inconsistent with, the unit pricing policy) will be made available to investors free of charge on request.

Indemnity

Equity Trustees, as the responsible entity of the Fund, is indemnified out of the Fund against all liabilities incurred by it in properly performing or exercising any of its powers or duties in relation to the Fund. To the extent permitted by the Corporations Act, this indemnity includes any liability incurred as a result of any act or omission of a delegate or agent appointed by the Responsible Entity. Subject to the law, Equity Trustees may retain or pay out from the assets of the Fund any sum necessary to affect such an indemnity.

9. Other important information (continued)

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing (“AML/CTF”)

Australia’s AML/CTF laws require Equity Trustees to adopt and maintain a written AML/CTF Program. A fundamental part of the AML/CTF Program is that Equity Trustees must hold up-to-date information about investors (including beneficial owner information) in the Fund.

To meet this legal requirement, we need to collect certain identification information (including beneficial owner information) and documentation (“KYC Documents”) from new investors. Existing investors may also be asked to provide KYC Documents as part of an ongoing customer due diligence/verification process to comply with AML/CTF laws. If applicants or investors do not provide the applicable KYC Documents when requested, Equity Trustees may be unable to process an application, or may be unable to provide products or services to existing investors until such time as the information is provided.

In order to comply with AML/CTF Laws, Equity Trustees may also disclose information including your personal information that it holds about the applicant, an investor, or any beneficial owner, to its related bodies corporate or service providers, or relevant regulators of AML/CTF Laws (whether inside or outside Australia). Equity Trustees may be prohibited by law from informing applicants or investors that such reporting has occurred.

Equity Trustees and the Investment Manager and Promoter shall not be liable to applicants or investors for any loss you may suffer because of compliance with the AML/CTF laws.

The Constitution

Investors that apply under this PDS will receive units in the Fund when they invest. Subject to the rights, obligations and restrictions of a class, each unit represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in the assets of the Fund as a whole subject to liabilities, but does not give any investor an interest in any particular property of the Fund.

Equity Trustees’ responsibilities and obligations, as the responsible entity of the Fund, are governed by the Constitution as well as the Corporations Act and general trust law. The Constitution contains a number of provisions relating to the rights, terms, conditions and obligations imposed on both Equity Trustees, as the responsible entity of the Fund, and investors. Some of the provisions of the Constitution are discussed elsewhere in this PDS. Other provisions relate to an investor’s rights under the Constitution, and include:

- an investor’s right to share in any Fund income, and how we calculate it;
- what investors are entitled to receive when they withdraw or if the Fund is wound up;
- the nature of the units - identical rights attach to all units within a class; and
- an investor’s rights to attend and vote at meetings – these provisions are mainly contained in the Corporations Act.

There are also provisions governing our powers and duties, including:

- how we calculate unit prices, the maximum amount of fees we can charge and expenses we can recover;
- when we can amend the Constitution - generally we can only amend the Constitution where we reasonably believe that the changes will not adversely affect investor’s rights. Otherwise the Constitution can only be amended if approved at a meeting of investors;
- when we can retire as the Responsible Entity of the Fund - which is as permitted by law;
- when we can be removed as the Responsible Entity of the Fund - which is when required by law; and
- our broad powers to invest, borrow and generally manage the Fund.

The Constitution also deals with our liabilities in relation to the Fund and when we can be reimbursed out of the Fund’s assets, for example:

- subject to the Corporations Act we are not liable for acting in reliance and good faith on professional advice; and
- we can be reimbursed for any liabilities we incur in connection with the proper performance of our powers and duties in respect of the Fund.

As mentioned above, Equity Trustees responsibilities and obligations as the responsible entity of the Fund are governed by the Constitution as well as the Corporations Act and general trust law, which generally require that we:

- act in the best interests of investors and, if there is a conflict between investors’ interests and our own, give priority to investors;
- treat investors in the same class equally and investors in different classes fairly;

- ensure the property of the Fund is clearly identified, held separately from other funds and our assets, and is valued regularly;
- ensure payments from the Fund's property are made in accordance with the Constitution and the Corporations Act; and report to ASIC any breach of the Corporations Act in relation to the Fund which has had, or is likely to have, a materially adverse effect on investors' interests. Subject to the Corporations Act, we are not liable for any loss unless we fail to act in good faith, act negligently or in breach of trust.

Copies of the Constitution are available, free of charge, on request from Equity Trustees.

Unitholder's liability

The Constitution of the Fund provides that unless there is a separate agreement with an investor, no investor can be called on to contribute to the assets of the Fund or to its creditors if the Fund is liquidated or becomes insolvent. Therefore it is expected that investors will not be under any obligation if a deficiency in the assets of the Fund was to occur. However, this view has not been fully tested at law and so it is not possible to give an absolute assurance that an investor's liability will be limited in all circumstances. In general, an investor's liability is limited to the amount (if any) which remains unpaid in relation to their application for units in the Fund and any outstanding tax obligations arising from the operation of the Fund. The Responsible Entity may redeem some or all of an investor's units to satisfy an amount of money due from the investor to the Responsible Entity. The Responsible Entity is also permitted to deduct certain amounts of money from the proceeds of an investor's withdrawal request. The Responsible Entity is entitled to be indemnified in certain circumstances by an investor or a person who was at any time an investor in respect of any tax referable to that person.

Investment Management Agreement

The Investment Management Agreement ("IMA"), between Equity Trustees and the Investment Manager, provides for the appointment of the Investment Manager to perform investment management services in relation to the ongoing operation of the Fund in return for the payment of the fees and charges as set out in the IMA. The investment management services to be provided by the Investment Manager or its properly appointed delegates include:

- investment and ongoing investment management;
- keeping the investment portfolio under review and conferring with Equity Trustees;

- providing all necessary information in relation to the portfolio to Equity Trustees and Custodian for Equity Trustees and Custodian to prepare the reports required under law and the Fund's constitution;
- instructing the Custodian; and
- exercising due care in selecting, appointing and reviewing the performance of any agent of the Investment Manager in connection with the portfolio or any broker.

The Investment Manager will be reimbursed from the Fund for all fees owed to the Investment Manager and all reasonably incurred expenses.

Equity Trustees may terminate the Investment Manager's appointment:

- by giving 20 Business Day's written notice, if investors pass an ordinary resolution to remove the Investment Manager; or
- immediately, if an insolvency event occurs in respect of the Investment Manager.

Information on underlying investments

Information regarding the Fund will be provided to investors on request, to the extent Equity Trustees is satisfied that (i) such information is required to enable the investor to comply with its statutory reporting obligations and (ii) the provision of such information would not result in a breach of any confidentiality obligations owed by the Investment Manager or its affiliates.

This information will be supplied within a reasonable timeframe having regard to these obligations.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”)

The Australian Government signed an intergovernmental agreement (“IGA”) with the United States of America (“U.S.”), which requires all Australian financial institutions to comply with FATCA.

Under FATCA, Australian financial institutions are required to collect and review their information to identify U.S. resident account holders and certain entities controlled by U.S. residents. This U.S. resident account information is reported to the Australian Taxation Office (“ATO”). The ATO may then pass that information onto the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

In order to comply with our FATCA obligations, we may request certain information from you.

Common Reporting Standards (“CRS”)

The CRS is developed by the Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development and requires certain financial institutions resident in a participating jurisdiction to document and identify reportable accounts and implement due diligence procedures. These financial institutions will also be required to report certain information on reportable accounts to their relevant local tax authorities.

Australia signed the CRS Multilateral Competent Authority Agreement and has enacted domestic tax legislation to implement CRS in Australia. Australian financial institutions need to document and identify reportable accounts (i.e. certain non-resident account holders), implement due diligence procedures and report certain information with respect to reportable accounts to the ATO. The ATO may then exchange this information with the relevant foreign tax authority.

In order to comply with our CRS obligations, we may request certain information from you.

Terms and conditions for collection of Tax File Numbers (TFN) and Australian Business Numbers (ABN)

Collection of TFN and ABN information is authorised and its use and disclosure strictly regulated by tax laws and the Privacy Act. Investors must only provide an ABN instead of a TFN when the investment is made in the course of their enterprise. You are not obliged to provide either your TFN or ABN, but if you do not provide either or claim an exemption, we are required to deduct tax from your distribution at the highest marginal tax rate plus Medicare levy to meet Australian taxation law requirements.

For more information about the use of TFNs for investments, contact the enquiries section of your local branch of the ATO. Once provided, your TFN will be applied automatically to any future investments in the Fund/Trust where formal application procedures are not required (e.g. distribution reinvestments), unless you indicate, at any time, that you do not wish to quote a TFN for a particular investment. Exempt investors should attach a copy of the certificate of exemption. For super funds or trusts list only the applicable ABN or TFN for the super fund or trust.

When you sign this Application Form you declare that you have read, agree to and make the declarations above
